Black Aswan Egyptian Granite

Elegant Dark Egyptian Granite with a Bold Architectural Character

Black Aswan Granite is a distinctive Egyptian natural stone quarried in the Aswan region of southern Egypt. Characterized by its dark gray to black background and naturally distributed mineral grains, it offers a sophisticated appearance suitable for both contemporary and classic architectural designs.

Its deep neutral tones, natural crystalline texture, and granite characteristics make Black Aswan an attractive choice for interior, exterior, commercial, landscape, and custom architectural applications.

Applications

Black Aswan Granite is suitable for a wide range of applications, including:

- Countertops and vanity tops
- Interior and exterior flooring
- Exterior façades
- Wall cladding
- Paving and walkways
- Steps and staircases
- Landscape features
- Columns and architectural elements
- Monuments and memorials
- Commercial and public projects

Available Finishes

At Nileox Stone, Black Aswan Granite can be supplied in a variety of finishes to achieve different architectural appearances:

Polished | Honed | Flamed | Bush Hammered | Brushed | Sandblasted | Antique

Custom finishes are also available according to project specifications.

Sizes & Custom Fabrication

Black Aswan Granite can be supplied as slabs, tiles, pavers, steps, wall cladding, countertops, monuments, and custom cut-to-size pieces.

Dimensions, thicknesses, edge profiles, surface finishes, and custom fabrication can be produced according to architectural drawings and individual project requirements.

Dark Natural Beauty

The dark background and natural mineral structure of Black Aswan Granite create a strong yet refined architectural appearance.

A polished finish enhances the depth, mineral details, and darker tones of the stone, while Honed, Flamed, Bush Hammered, and Sandblasted finishes provide softer or more textured surfaces for architectural and exterior applications.

Egyptian Granite for Distinctive Architecture

From countertops and sophisticated interiors to façades, paving, monuments, and custom architectural elements, Black Aswan Egyptian Granite offers a timeless dark appearance with the authentic character of Egyptian natural stone.
