Rosa El Nasr Egyptian Granite

Elegant Pink Egyptian Granite with a Distinctive Natural Pattern

Rosa El Nasr Egyptian Granite is a distinctive natural stone recognized for its warm pink to rose-colored background combined with black, gray, and lighter mineral grains.

Its balanced color and naturally crystalline pattern create an elegant appearance that works well across both classic and contemporary architectural designs.

Rosa El Nasr is a versatile choice for residential, commercial, landscape, and architectural projects where natural color, visual character, and the performance of granite are required.

Applications

Rosa El Nasr Granite is suitable for a wide range of interior and exterior applications, including:

- Interior and exterior flooring
- Exterior façades
- Wall cladding
- Countertops and vanity tops
- Steps and staircases
- Paving and walkways
- Landscape features
- Columns and architectural elements
- Monuments and memorials
- Commercial and public projects

Available Finishes

At Nileox Stone, Rosa El Nasr Granite can be supplied in a variety of finishes depending on the desired appearance and application:

Polished | Honed | Flamed | Bush Hammered | Brushed | Sandblasted | Antique

Custom finishes are also available according to project specifications.

Sizes & Custom Fabrication

Rosa El Nasr Granite can be supplied as slabs, tiles, pavers, steps, countertops, wall cladding, monuments, and custom cut-to-size pieces.

Dimensions, thicknesses, edge profiles, surface finishes, and custom fabrication can be produced according to architectural drawings and individual project requirements.

Warm Natural Character

The combination of rose-pink tones and contrasting mineral grains gives Rosa El Nasr Granite a distinctive appearance without being overpowering, allowing it to complement a wide range of architectural materials and colors.

A polished finish enhances the depth of its pink tones and natural crystalline structure, while textured finishes such as Flamed, Bush Hammered, and Sandblasted create a more natural appearance for exterior paving, façades, steps, and landscape applications.

Authentic Egyptian Granite for Distinctive Projects

From flooring and façades to countertops, paving, monuments, and custom architectural elements, Rosa El Nasr Egyptian Granite combines warm natural color with the timeless character of Egyptian stone.
