Royal Gray Egyptian Limestone

Sophisticated Gray Egyptian Limestone with Contemporary Character

Royal Gray Egyptian Limestone is an elegant natural stone distinguished by its soft gray tones, subtle natural variation, and refined appearance.

Its neutral gray palette makes it particularly suitable for contemporary architecture, providing a clean and sophisticated alternative to traditional beige limestone while maintaining the authentic character of Egyptian natural stone.

Royal Gray works beautifully with modern materials such as glass, metal, wood, and concrete, making it an excellent choice for residential, commercial, and landscape projects.

Applications

Royal Gray Limestone is suitable for:

- Exterior façades
- Wall cladding
- Interior and exterior flooring
- Pool decks and pool coping
- Patios and terraces
- Walkways and paving
- Steps and staircases
- Landscape features
- Residential and commercial projects

Available Finishes

At Nileox Stone, Royal Gray Limestone can be produced in a variety of surface treatments to create different architectural textures:
