Silvia Egyptian Limestone

Elegant Egyptian Limestone with Distinctive Linear Veining

Silvia Egyptian Limestone is a distinctive natural stone known for its warm beige and creamy tones combined with elegant linear veining. Its refined appearance gives architectural surfaces a natural sense of movement and character, making it suitable for both contemporary and traditional designs.

With its neutral color palette and distinctive natural pattern, Silvia Limestone is an excellent choice for residential, commercial, landscape, and architectural projects.

Applications

Silvia Limestone can be used for a wide range of interior and exterior applications, including:

- Exterior façades
- Wall cladding
- Interior and exterior flooring
- Pool decks and pool coping
- Patios and terraces
- Walkways and paving
- Steps and staircases
- Landscape features
- Residential and commercial projects

Available Finishes

At Nileox Stone, Silvia Limestone can be supplied in a variety of surface and edge finishes to achieve different architectural styles:

Tumbled | Chiseled Edge | Bush Hammered | Brushed | Honed | Sandblasted | Antique

Custom finishes are also available upon request.

Sizes & Custom Fabrication

Silvia Limestone is available in tiles, pavers, slabs, pool coping, steps, wall cladding, and custom cut-to-size pieces.

Dimensions, thicknesses, surface finishes, and edge profiles can be customized according to architectural drawings and project specifications.

Natural Character

One of the defining characteristics of Silvia Limestone is its natural linear movement. Depending on the cutting direction and block selection, the stone can display distinctive vein patterns that add depth and visual interest to large surfaces.

Natural variations in shade, veining, and texture are part of the unique character of the material, making every installation distinctive.

Egyptian Stone Crafted for Modern Architecture

From elegant façades and wall cladding to pool surrounds, paving, and outdoor living spaces, Silvia Limestone offers the warm appearance and authentic character of Egyptian natural stone.
